New England Members Meeting, Saturday, March 26, 2011

Amtrak is serious about true high speed rail (avg. speed over 200 mph). It recently published a report envisaging an enhanced Northeast Corridor (NEC) that would speed passengers from Boston to New York in less than 90 minutes and Boston to Washington in under 3 hours. Come to the NARP New England meeting for details.

Keynote Speaker

Albrecht "Al" P. Engel, P.E.

Vice President, High Speed Rail at Amtrak

"Amtrak's Vision for True High Speed Rail"

Al Engel is Vice President of High Speed Rail for Amtrak. In this role he serves on the Executive Committee and provides leadership for advancing Amtrak's high speed initiatives in the United States. Prior positions include VP of HSR for AECOM, Financial Advisor with Morgan Stanley Co., and President of SYSTRA Consulting. Projects include planning for the California HSR project and the Amtrak Acela. Mr. Engel has served on the American Public Transportation Assn (APTA) Board of Directors.
